INTRODUCTION

There is no one factor in the Sunday School that has so much to do with the teaching of reverence, and indeed with the whole development of the child's character, as music.

Heretofore we have not given music the proper place in our Sunday Schools; true, we have had the children sing, but more often this has been done without thought as to the sentiment of the song and without helping the child to get the depth of feeling which the song was intended to express.

The songs for the Beginners' department should combine the simplest thought with the sweetest melody and the most beautiful words which these little people can comprehend. A gradual increase in vocabulary and sentiment should mark the songs for the Primaries and Juniors. With these varying needs in mind the editors of Songs for Children have admirably suited the words and music to these different stages of development in child comprehension.

Wellnigh all phases of life are touched upon; there are many nature songs closely correlated with the thought of the graded lessons, songs especially written for different seasons and events, and songs which make a compelling appeal to little hearts.

We believe that no book has ever given to childhood the number of Scriptural quotations fitted to exquisite melody that this one contains. These pieces, all of the highest order, are intended for use at the opening exercises, before the offering, or at the closing.

Then there is the department of Standard Hymns, which the graded lessons afford such a fine opportunity for using. The very best among the old time favorites have been selected and grouped together. All that are recommended in the Junior graded series of Lessons are here given and a number of others added.

Cope has said, "How poor is he who comes to life's days of loneliness without the riches of religious hymnody in his heart." Junior teachers are living up to the fullest of their opportunities when along with the lessons which form part of their work they are teaching these matchless old hymns in this great memory period of the child's life.

Under the head of Programs for Departments is one for each section in the elementary division, made practicable for the average Sunday School. The programs for the "Special Days" will be found quite new and original. We believe we do not exaggerate when we say that this is the most complete and the most practical Song Manual ever prepared for Elementary Workers.

May we ask those whose privilege it is to teach these songs to remember: that rhythm and melody belong instinctively to ninety-nine out of every hundred children and that their natural love for a story makes it a delightful task to teach them these beautiful little song-stories.

Life, spirit, movement, joy — all belong to childhood. The song lesson may be utterly ruined by lifeless teaching just as the spiritual lesson of the song may be missed entirely by ineffectual work on the part of the teacher. The best is none too good for children. Study their needs and prepare to meet them in song and story and reap an abundant reward in their happy, spontaneous response. The material is here. Use it for the good of the child and the glory of God.

By all means place the books in the hands of the children of the Primary, and Junior departments. The Publishers have spared no expense to make the typography of the music and words readily readable for little eyes. Children love books of their own. "Songs for Children" will prove useful, in the day school as well as in the Sunday school and home.

Helps To Find The Piece You Want

Songs For Children has been arranged with your needs in mind. The Publishers and Editors have devoted themselves to the work of making the book practical. To aid you in its use they have supplied a very complete table of "Contents" which follows this page, and in addition they have prepared Indexes which will be found at the end of the book, viz: Index of Subjects, Index of Song Sentences and Index of Standard Hymns.

Appreciation

To the authors and publishers who have so graciously given permission to use the words and music of some of the most popular pieces in this book we extend our sincere thanks and hearty appreciation.

1. Lit-tle rain-drops fall-ing down, Fall-ing down, fall-ing down;
2. Lit-tle snow-flakes fall-ing down, Fall-ing down, fall-ing down;
3. Lit-tle stars up in the sky, In the sky, in the sky;
4. Lit-tle bir-dies in the air, In the air, in the air;
Lit-tle rain-drops fall-ing down, On the thirs-ty ground.
Lit-tle snow-flakes fall-ing down, On the fro-zen ground.
Lit-tle stars up in the sky, Shin-ing there, so high!
Lit-tle bir-dies in the air, Fly-ing ev-ery-where!
Why did you come to us to-day? "God sent me up-on my way."
Why are you dress'd so cool and white?"God sent me all pure and light."
Why do you shine thro' all the night?"God sent me, so clear and bright!"
Why do you chirp and fly and sing? "God sent me good cheer to bring!"
Lit-tle rain-drops fall-ing down, On the thirs ty ground.
Lit-tle snow-flakes fall-ing down, On the fro zen ground.
Lit-tle stars up in the sky, Shin ing there, so high!
Lit-tle bir-dies in the air, Fly ing ev ery where!

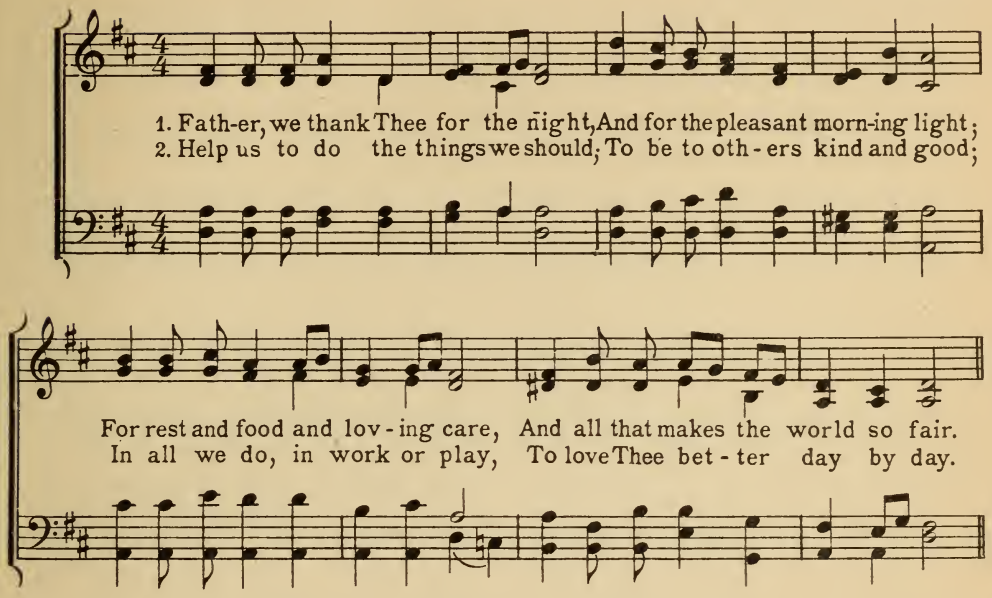
Father, We Thank Thee

MORNING HYMN

13

CARRIE B. ADAMS



1. Fath-er, we thank Thee for the night, And for the pleasant morn-ing light;
2. Help us to do the things we should; To be to oth-ers kind and good;
For rest and food and lov-ing care, And all that makes the world so fair.
In all we do, in work or play, To love Thee bet-ter day by day.

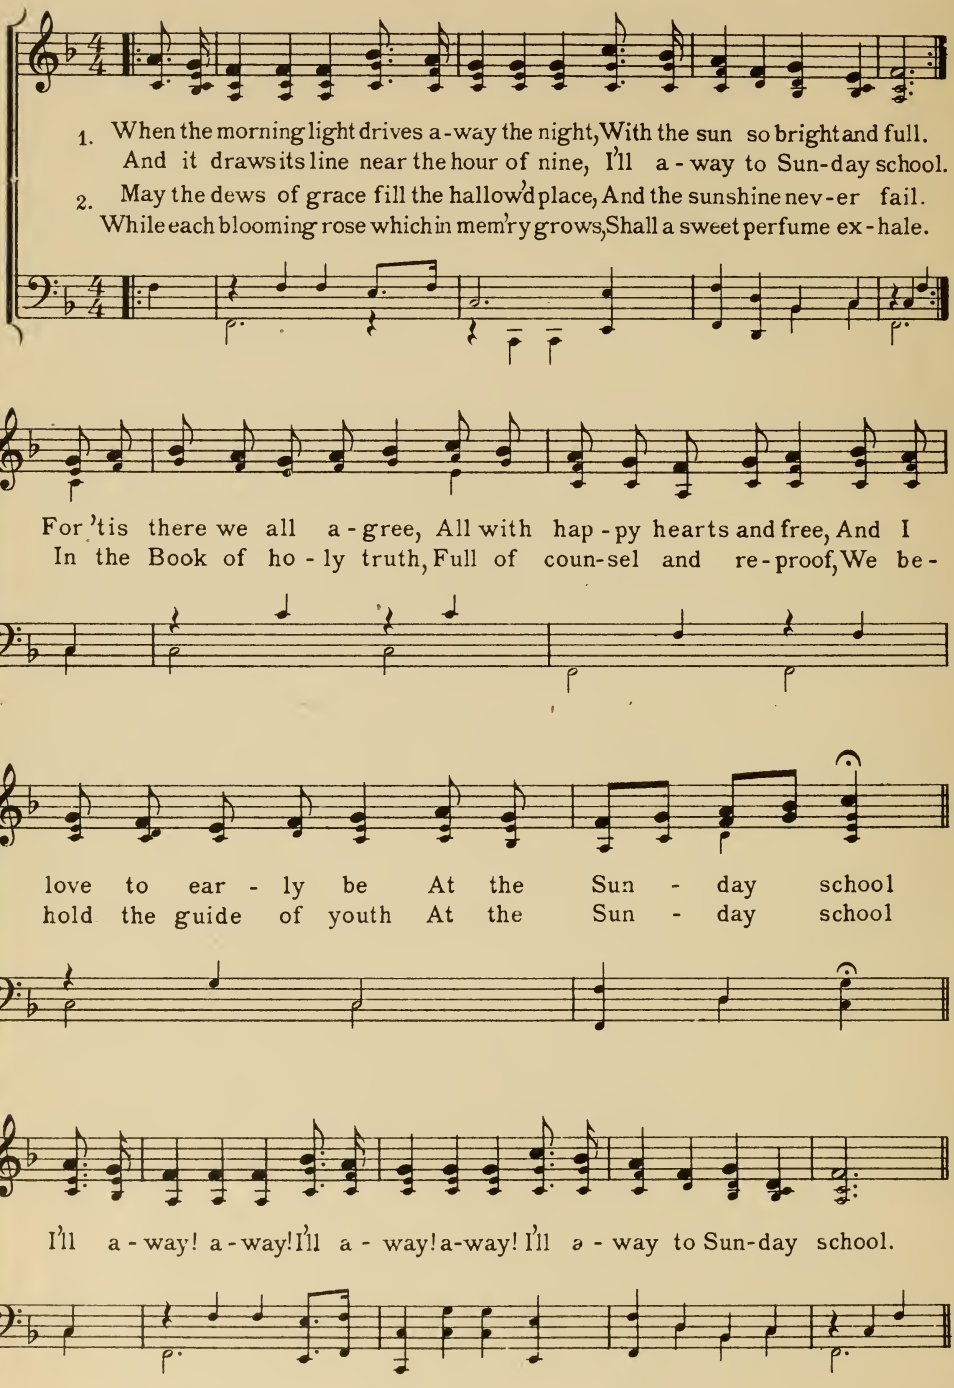
When the Morning Bright

20

R. LOWRY



1. When the morning light drives a-way the night, With the sun so bright and full.
And it draws its line near the hour of nine, I'll a-way to Sun-day school.
2. May the dews of grace fill the hallow'd place, And the sunshine nev-er fail.
While each blooming rose which in mem'ry grows, Shall a sweet perfume ex-hale.
For 'tis there we all a-gree, All with hap-py hearts and free, And I
In the Book of ho-ly truth, Full of coun-sel and re-proof, We belove to ear-ly be At the Sun-day school
hold the guide of youth At the Sun-day school
I'll a-way! a-way! I'll a-way! a-way! I'll a-way to Sun-day school.

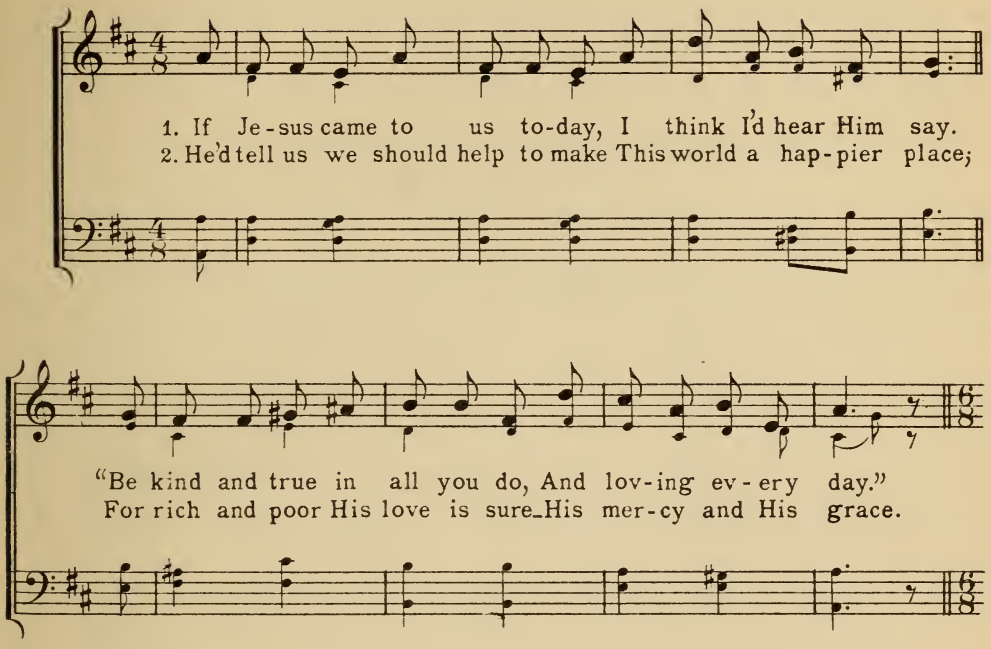
The Golden Rule

40

C. B. A. CARRIE B. ADAMS



1. If Je-sus came to us to-day, I think I'd hear Him say.
2. He'd tell us we should help to make This world a hap-pier place;
"Be kind and true in all you do, And lov-ing ev-ery day."
For rich and poor His love is sure_His mer-cy and His grace.
CHORUS
Do un-to oth-ers as you would have them do to you:
Do un-to oth-ers as you would have them do to you.

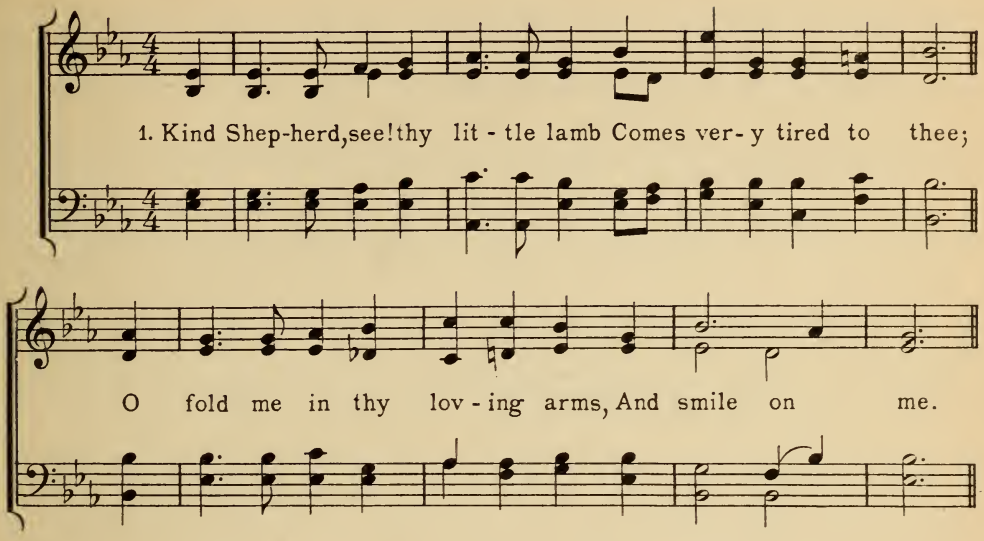
Evening Hymn

52

MRS. H. P. HAWKINS J. B. DYKES



2.

I've wandered from thy fold to-day,
And would not hear thee call;
And oh! I was not happy then,
Nor glad at all.

3.

I want dear Saviour, to be good,
And follow close to thee
Thro' flow'ry meads and pastures green,
And happy be.

Thou kind, good Shepherd! in thy fold
I evermore would keep.
In morning's light and evening's shade,
And while I sleep.

5.

But now, dear Jesus, let me lay
My head upon thy breast;
I am too tired to tell thee more,
Thou know'st the rest.

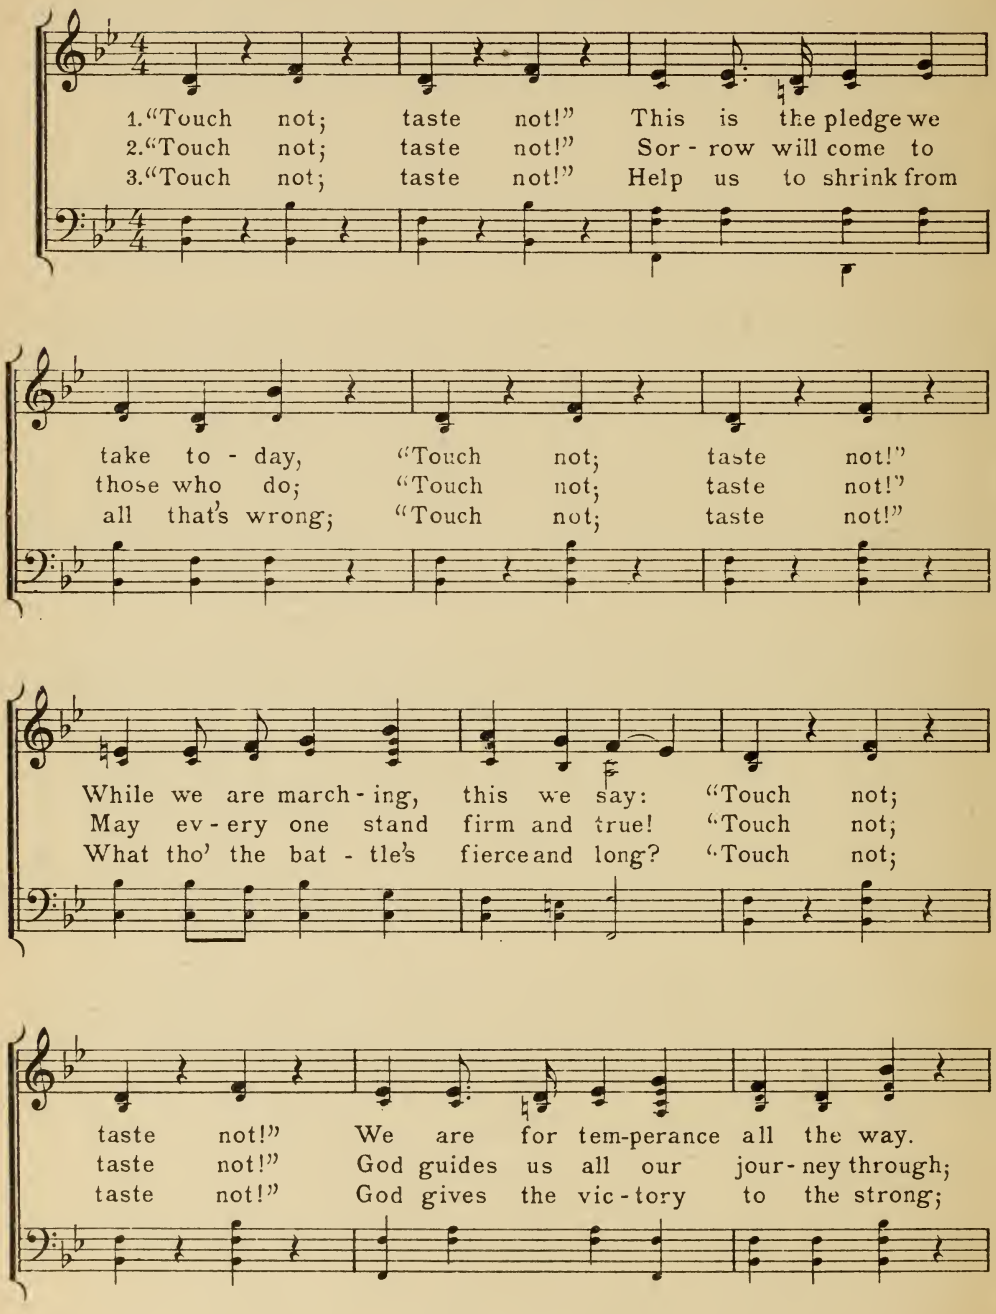
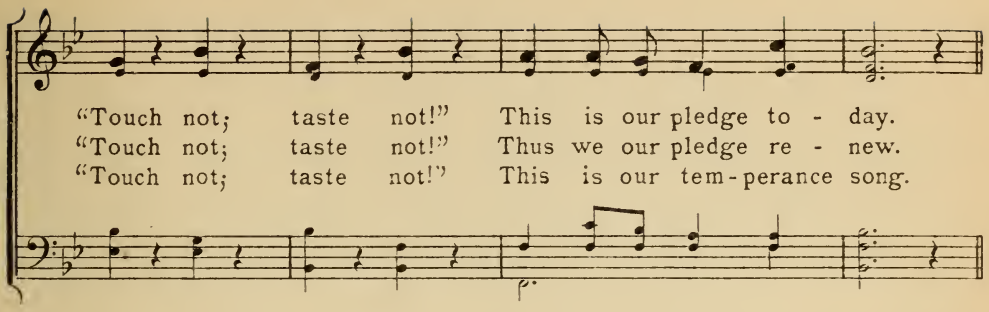
Touch Not; Taste Not!

72

C. B. A. CARRIE B. ADAMS



1. "Touch not; taste not!" This is the pledge we take to - day, "Touch not; taste not!"
2. "Touch not; taste not!" Sor - row will come to those who do; "Touch not; taste not!"
3. "Touch not; taste not!" Help us to shrink from all that's wrong; "Touch not; taste not!"
While we are march - ing, this we say: "Touch not; taste not!"
May ev - ery one stand firm and true! "Touch not; taste not!"
What tho' the bat - tle's fierce and long? "Touch not; taste not!"
We are for tem-perance all the way.
God guides us all our jour - ney through;
God gives the vic - tory to the strong;



"Touch not; taste not!" This is our pledge to - day.
"Touch not; taste not!" Thus we our pledge re - new.

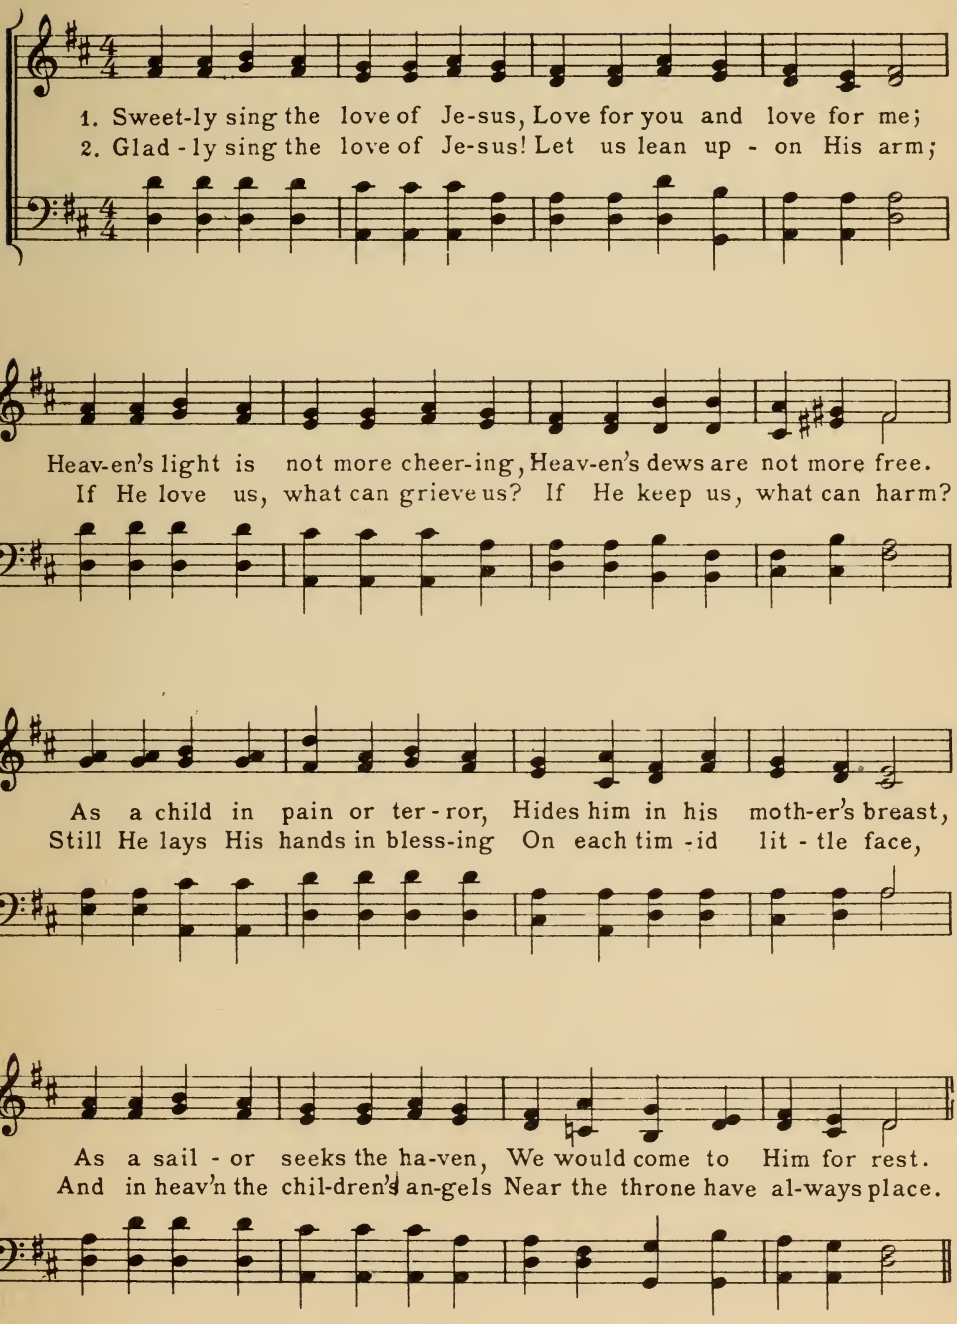
Sweetly Sing the Love of Jesus

76

CARRIE B. ADAMS



1. Sweet-ly sing the love of Je-sus, Love for you and love for me;
2. Glad-ly sing the love of Je-sus! Let us lean up - on His arm;
Heav-en's light is not more cheer-ing, Heav-en's dews are not more free.
If He love us, what can grieve us? If He keep us, what can harm?
As a child in pain or ter-ror, Hides him in his moth-er's breast,
Still He lays His hands in bless-ing On each tim-id lit-tle face,
As a sail-or seeks the ha-ven, We would come to Him for rest.
And in heav'n the chil-dren's an-gels Near the throne have al-ways place.

M. C. B. MARGARET COOTE BROWN

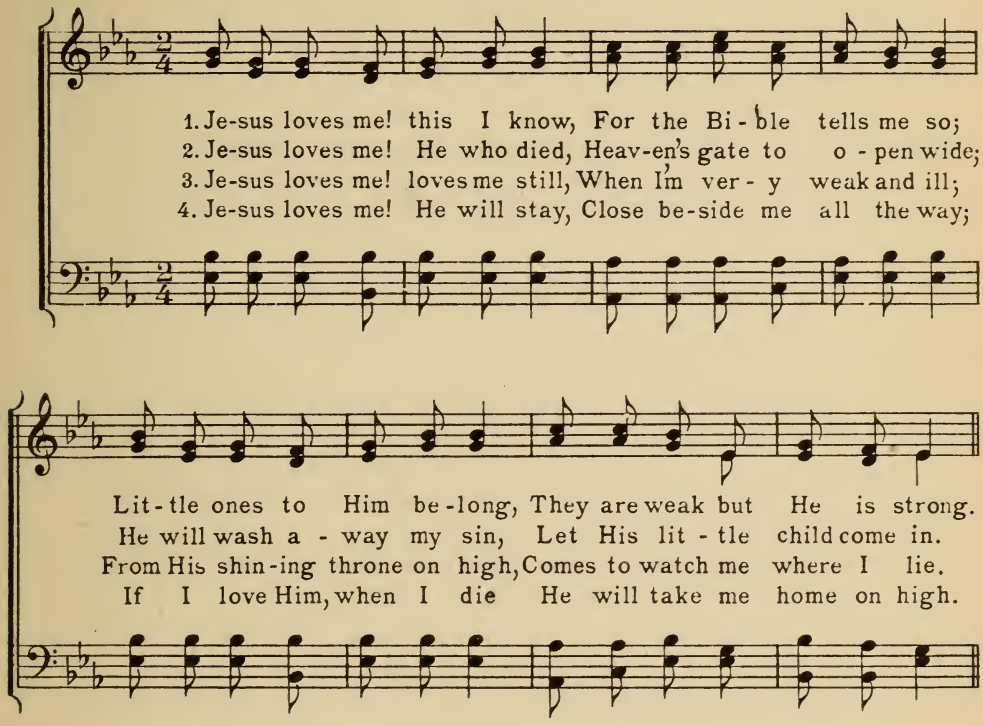
1. Giv-ing, giv-ing, ev-er giv-ing, Love's sweet of-fring glad-ly bring;
2. Clap-ping, clap-ping, soft-ly clapping, To our Sav-ior thanks and praise;
3. Lit-tle hands I bring, O Fa-ther, Help them lov-ing things to do;
Free-ly we re-ceive, and free-ly We will give to Christ our King;
While we clap our hands to-geth-er We our voi-ces, too, will raise;
Eyes for see-ing, ears for hear-ing, Feet for will-ing serv-ice, too;
Sing ing sweet-ly, Je-sus, hear: Bless Thy lit-tle chil-dren dear.
Sing-ing soft-ly, Je-sus, hear: Bless Thy lit-tle chil-dren dear.
All I am, dear Je-sus, take: Bless me now for Je-sus' sake. A-men.

Jesus Loves Me!

82

ANNA WARNER — Wm B. BRADBURY



1. Je-sus loves me! this I know, For the Bi-ble tells me so;
2. Je-sus loves me! He who died, Heav-en's gate to o-pen wide;
3. Je-sus loves me! loves me still, When I'm ver-y weak and ill;
4. Je-sus loves me! He will stay, Close be-side me all the way;
Lit-tle ones to Him be-long, They are weak but He is strong.
He will wash a-way my sin, Let His lit-tle child come in.
From His shin-ing throne on high, Comes to watch me where I lie.
If I love Him, when I die He will take me home on high.

Six or more children are placed in a standing line. In front of these six smaller children. In front of these, six of the smallest children, making three lines. This should be noiselessly done. Pianist plays the music of the song, growing gradually softer to the close, while children kneel with bowed heads, closed eyes, and palms together.

FIRST VERSE: - 1, Teachers and class sing to the sleepers; 2, Snowdrop children in back row waken and stand; 3, Children in back row sing with the other singers.

SECOND VERSE: -, Snowdrops sing with the other singers; 2, Lily children waken and stand; 3, Lily children wave long stems of lilies in time with song. All sing who are awake.

THIRD VERSE: - 1, All sing to sleepers in the front row; 2, Butterflies waken, stand, extend arms upward and outward alternately, fluttering noiselessly among the flowers; 3, All sing, butterflies slowly finding their places, wings fluttering, lily-bells ringing to the last soft note of the postlude, which is a repetition of the last two lines.

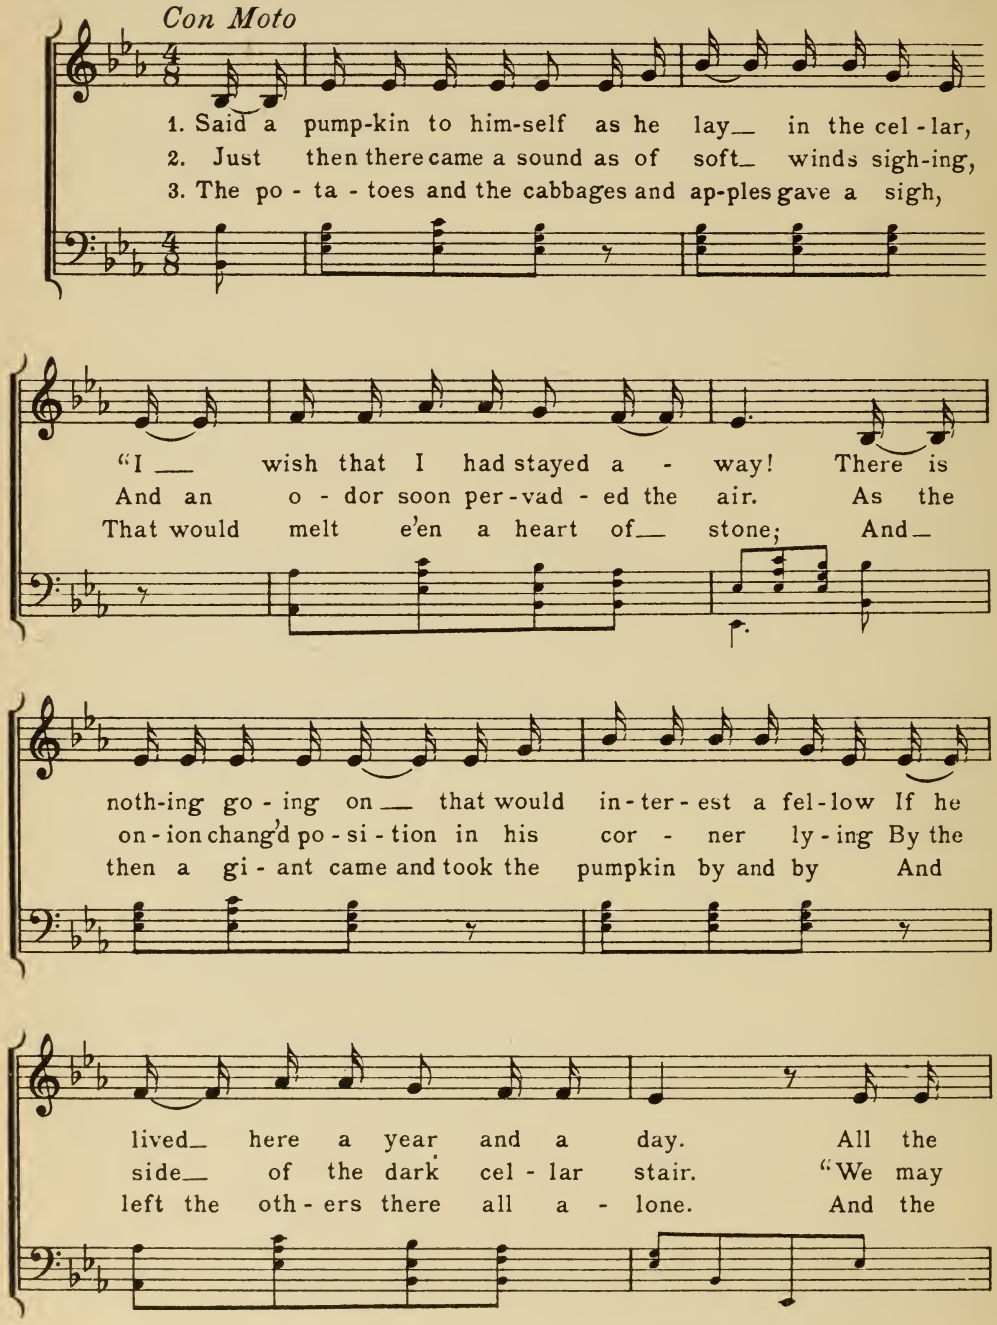
C. B. A. CARRIE B. ADAMS



Con Moto
1. Do you hear the bells? and their ring-ing tells That the win-ter time is here, When it snows, and snows, and the north-wind blows: 'Tis the jol-liest time of all the year!
2. In the si-lent night comes a man-tle white Cov-ering ev-ery bush and tree: 'Tis a great sur-prise to the chil-dren's eyes In the morn-ing when they rush to see.
3. Then the sun comes out, and with mer-ry shout Ev-ery child is wild with joy, Run-ning here and there in the frost-y air; They are hap-py ev-ery girl and boy!
*CHORUS
Then jin-gle, jin-gle, jin-gle, go the win-ter bells!

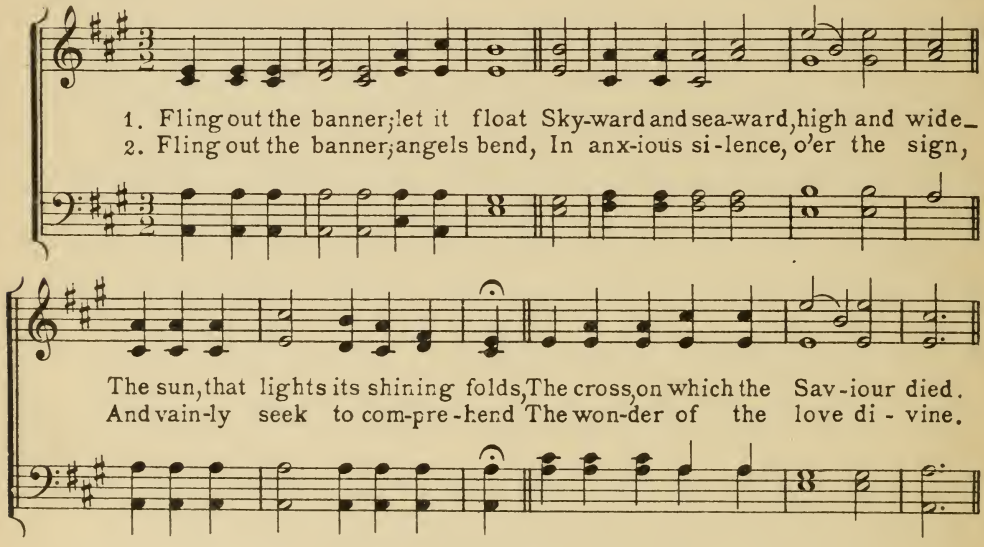
Fling out the Banner

122

G. W. DOANE GEORGE KINGSLEY



1. Fling out the banner; let it float Sky-ward and sea-ward, high and wide_
2. Fling out the banner; angels bend, In anx-ious si-lence, o'er the sign,
The sun, that lights its shining folds, The cross, on which the Sav-iour died.
And vain-ly seek to com-pre-hend The won-der of the love di-vine.

3. Fling out the banner; let it float
Sky ward and seaward, high and wide_
Our glory, only in the cross;
Our only hope, the Crucified.

4. Fling out the banner, wide and high,
Seaward and sky ward, let it shine;
Nor skill, nor might, nor merit, ours;
We conquer only in that sign.

Hide me, O my Sav-iour hide, Till the storm of life is past;
All my trust on Thee is strayed, All my help from Thee I bring;
Just and ho-ly is Thy name; I am all un-right-eous-ness;
Safe in-to the ha-ven guide, O re-ceive my soul at last!
Cov-er my de-fence less head With the shad-ow of Thy wing!
Vile and full of sin I am, Thou art full of truth and grace.

Open now the crystal fountain,
Whence the healing waters flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey thro':
Strong Deliverer,
Be Thou still my strength and shield,
Strong Deliverer,
Be Thou still my strength and shield.

4.

When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Bear me thro' the swelling current;
Land me safe on Canaan's side;
Songs of praises
I will ever give to Thee,
Songs of praises
I will ever give to Thee.

Bring Them In

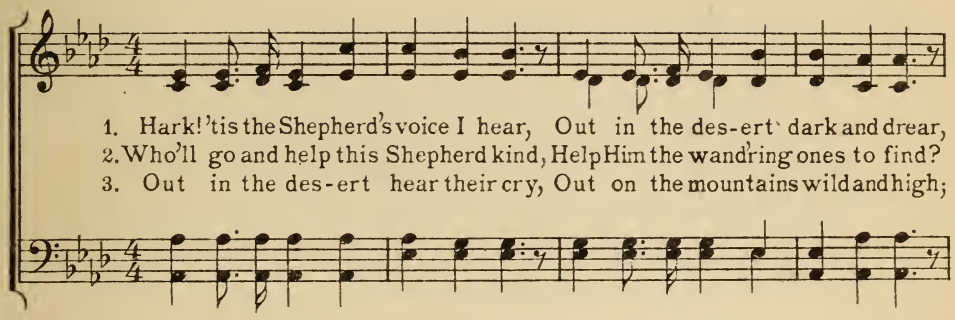
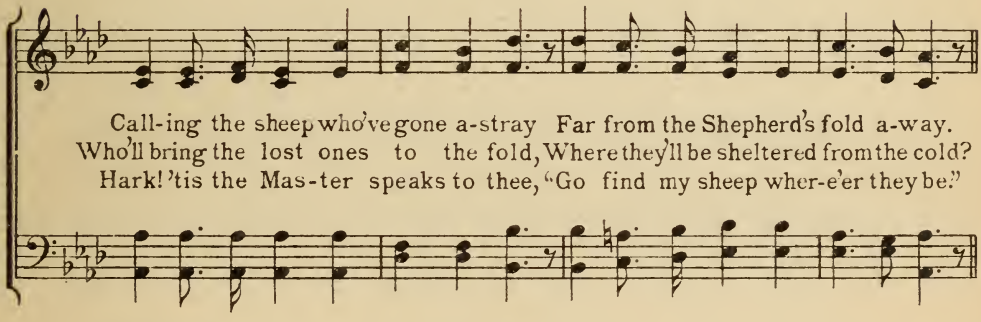
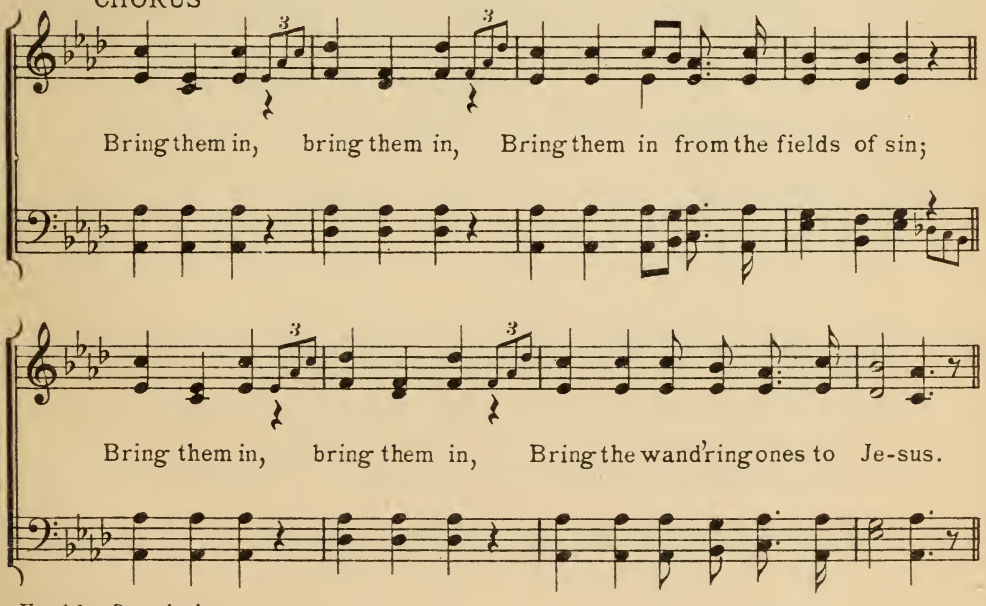
ALEXCENAH THOMAS W. A. OGDEN



1. Hark! 'tis the Shepherd's voice I hear, Out in the des-ert dark and drear,
2. Who'll go and help this Shepherd kind, Help Him the wand'ring ones to find?
3. Out in the des-ert hear their cry, Out on the mountains wild and high;



Call-ing the sheep who've gone a-stray Far from the Shepherd's fold a-way.
Who'll bring the lost ones to the fold, Where they'll be sheltered from the cold?
Hark! 'tis the Mas-ter speaks to thee, "Go find my sheep wher-e'er they be."



CHORUS
Bring them in, bring them in, Bring them in from the fields of sin;
Bring them in, bring them in, Bring the wand'ring ones to Je-sus.

O Jesus, I Have Promised

J. E. BODE 159 F. GUMBERT

1. O Je-sus, I have prom-ised To serve thee to the end;
2. O let me feel thee near me, The world is ev-er near;
3. O Je-sus, thou hast prom-ised To all that fol-low thee,
Be thou for-ev-er near me, My Mas-ter and my Friend!
I see the sights that daz-zle, The tempt-ing sounds I hear:
That where thou art in glo-ry, There shall thy ser-vant be;
I shall not fear the bat-tle If thou art by my side,
My foes are ev-er near, me, A-round me and with in;
And, Je-sus, I have prom-ised To serve thee to the end;
Nor wan-der from the path-way If thou wilt be my guide.
But, Je-sus, draw thou near-er And shield my soul from sin.
O, give me grace to fol-low My Mas-ter and my Friend!

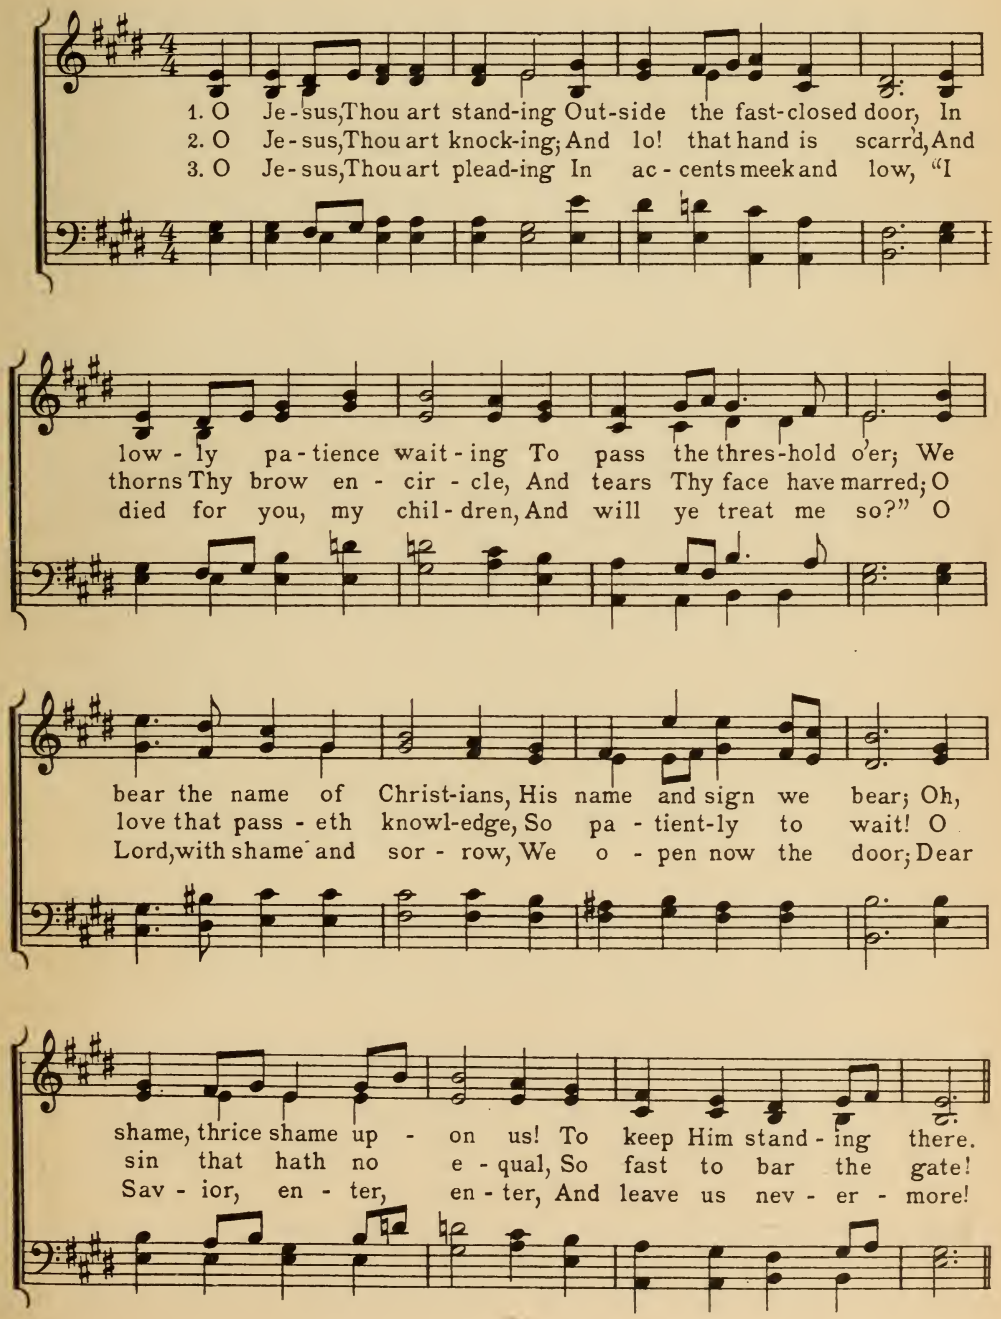
W. W. HOW — J. H. KNECHT and E. HUSBAND



1. O Je - sus, Thou art stand-ing Out-side the fast-closed door, In low - ly pa - tience wait - ing To pass the thres-hold o'er; We bear the name of Christ-ians, His name and sign we bear; Oh, shame, thrice shame up - on us! To keep Him stand - ing there.
2. O Je - sus, Thou art knock-ing; And lo! that hand is scarr'd, And

Watchman, tell us of the Night

WATCHMAN

JOHN BOWRING 162 LOWELL MASON

1. Watch-man, tell us of the night, What its signs of prom-ise are.
2. Watch-man, tell us of the night; High-er yet the star as - cends.
3. Watch-man, tell us of the night, For the morn-ing seems to dawn.
Traveler, o'er yon moun-tain's height See that glo - ry-beam-ing star!
Traveler, bless-ed-ness and light, Peace and truth, its course por-tends.
Traveler, dark-ness takes its flight, Doubt and ter - ror are with-drawn.
Watchman, does its beau-teous ray Aught of hope or joy fore - tell?
Watchman, will its beams a - lone Gild the spot that gave them birth?
Watchman, let thy wandering cease; Hie thee to thy qui - et home!
Traveler, yes; it brings the day, Prom-ised day of Is - ra - el.
Traveler, a - ges are its own See, it bursts o'er all the earth!
Traveler, lo! the Prince of peace, Lo! the Son of God is come!

It Came upon the Midnight Clear

CAROL

EDWIH H SEARS 166 R. S. WILLIS

1. It came up-on the mid-night clear, That glo-rious song of old,
2. Still thro' the clo - ven skies they come, With peaceful wings un - furled;
3. Oh, ye, be neath life's crush-ing load, Whose forms are bend-ing low,
4. For lo! the days are hasten-ing on, By proph-et-bards fore-told,
From an-gels bend - ing near the earth, To touch their harps of gold;
And still ce - les - tial mu - sic floats O'er all the wea - ry world;
Who toil a - long the climb-ing way, With pain - ful steps and slow;—
When with the ev - er - cir - cling years Comes round the age of gold!
"Peace to the earth, good will to men, From heav'ns all-gra-cious King:"
A - bove its sad and low - ly plains They bend on heavenly wing,
Look up! for glad and gold-en hours Come swift-ly on the wing;
When peace shall o - ver all the earth Its fi - nal splen-dors fling,
The earth in sol - emn still-ness lay, To hear the an-gels sing.
And ev - er o'er its Ba - bel sounds, The bless-ed an-gels sing.
Oh, rest be - side the wea - ry road, And hear the an-gels sing.
And the whole world send back the song Which now the an-gels sing.

SABINE BARING GOULD — ARTHUR S. SULLIVAN

1. On-ward, Chris-tian sol-diers! March-ing as to war,
With the cross of Je-sus Go-ing on be-fore;
Christ, the roy-al Mas-ter, Leads a-gainst the foe;
For-ward in to bat-tle, See his ban-ners go!
2. Like a might-y ar-my Moves the Church of God;
Broth-ers, we are tread-ing Where the saints have trod;
We are not di-vid-ed, All one bod-y we;
One in hope and doc-trine, One in char-i-ty.
3. Crowns and thrones may per-ish, King-doms rise and wane,
But the Church of Je-sus Con-stant will re-main;
Gates of hell can nev-er Gainst that Church pre-vail;
We have Christ's own prom-ise, And that can-not fail.
4. On-ward, then, ye peo-ple! Join our hap-py throng;
Blend with ours your voic-es In the tri-umph song;
Glo-ry, laud, and hon-or Un-to Christ the King,
This thro' count-less a-ges, Men and an-gels sing.

The Cradle Roll Welcome Day Program

L. A. F.

Decorations: Pink, light blue and white of the Cradle Roll department will be appropriate colors for the decorations as would also the green and white of the Elementary Division.

A little white cradle with all the babies' names attached to it may be suspended by ribbons or placed upon a white-covered stand.

A white cradle sufficiently large to hold a real baby should be put upon the rostrum. If possible, a baby whose name is being placed upon the Cradle Roll on this special day, may be put in the cradle for a brief service mentioned in program.

The cradle should be decorated with a bow of pink or blue ribbon and with streamers of ribbon at each corner, which may be used by four children who rock the cradle during the exercise when the baby is in it.

Welcome Song. "Little Fishers." No 16.

Hymn: "Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me." No. 120.

Prayer.

Song: "Sleep, Baby, Sleep." No. 14.
(To be sung by a teacher or by an older child.)

Scripture Reading:

For this child I prayed; and Jehovah hath given me my petition which I asked of him; therefore also I have granted him to Jehovah; as long as he liveth he is granted to Jehovah. And he worshiped Jehovah there. I Sam. 1: 27, 28.

But Samuel ministered before Jehovah, being a child, girded with a linen ephod. Moreover his mother made him a little robe, bringing it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. I Sam. 2: 18, 19.

And Samuel grew, and Jehovah was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground. I Sam. 3: 19.

Exercise for receiving new names:

Children with new names to be placed on the Cradle Roll, read names and place them in the little cradle to which names are attached.

Primaries and Beginners repeat:

"Little cradle do you think,
With your pretty bows of pink,
You can faithful be and true
To the names we trust to you?

"As we lay them gently there,
We will add this little prayer,
That the little baby face
In our class may find a place."

Song: By Beginners and Primaries: "I Love You." No. 35.

During singing, mother whose baby is to be placed in the big cradle comes forward placing it there while four children take the ribbons at the corners and begin to rock gently.

Children sing:

Hush, my dear, lie still and slumber;
Holy angels guard thy bed;
Heavenly blessings without number,
Gently falling on thy head. Luther

At close of song baby is returned to mother.

Solo: "Sleep, Little Baby, in Your Cradle Sweet." No. 49.

Sleep, little baby, in your cradle sweet,
Sleep, little baby, sleep.
Dear little stranger with our love we greet;
Sleep, little baby, sleep.

Love true and tender bring you on your way;
Sleep, little baby, sleep.
Love watches over you from day to day;
Sleep, little baby, sleep.

Christ loves the little children just like you;
Sleep, little baby, sleep.
He took them in his arms and blessed them too;
Sleep, little baby, sleep.

Recitation: "The Cradle Roll Babies."

"The Ministry of the Cradle Roll." By Supt.

Song: "The Seed of Love." No. 25.

A Challenge to the Mother:

"Would you know the baby's skies?
Baby's skies are mother's eyes.
Mother's eyes and smile together
Make the baby's pleasant weather.

"Mother, keep your eyes from tears,
Keep your heart from foolish fears,
Keep your lips from dull complaining,
Lest the baby think 'tis raining."

A Challenge to the Father:

"To feel his little hand in mine, so clinging and so warm;
To know he thinks me strong enough to keep him safe from harm;
To see his simple faith in all that I can say or do—
It sort o' shames a fellow, but it makes him better, too;
And I'm trying hard to be the man he fancies me to be,
Because I have this chap at home who thinks the world o' me.

"I would not disappoint his trust for anything on earth,
Nor let him know how little I just naturally am worth,
But, after all, it's easier that brighter road to climb,
With little hands behind me to push me all the time.
And I reckon I'm a better man than what I used to be
Because I have this chap at home who thinks the world o' me."

Song: "God Bless These Babies Dear.
All who are gathered here,
Our Cradle Roll.
Jesus, in Thy dear arms
Keep safe from all that harms,
And guard from all alarms,
Our Cradle Roll."

(Tune: America, No. 1.)

Memory Hymn: "The King of Love My Shepherd Is." No. 27.

Welcome Address:

Dear Friends: On this Promotion Day we greet you. We have been faithfully studying the graded work of the Bible school for the past year, and now we are ready to join higher classes. We know that you are glad for us, and that you will be interested in hearing our songs.

We will be glad if you can come into our class somtime and hear us tell the beautiful Bible stories that our teachers have given to us. We are sorry to leave them, but we want to know more about the Bible, and so we are glad to be promoted to another class.

We want to tell you some things we have learned before we go into the other classes. We have learned many beautiful stories about Jesus and His love for us. The Juniors will tell you the story, of the birth of Christ. Juniors then read following from memory:

"And there were shepherds in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock.

And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people:

For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord.

And this is the sign unto you: Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men, in whom He is well pleased.

And it came to pass, when the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing that is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

And they came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and a babe lying in the manger.

And when they saw it, they made known concerning the saying which was spoken to them about this child.

And all that heard it wondered at the things which were spoken unto them by the shepherds.

But Mary kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart.

And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken unto them."

Luke 2:8-20

Song: "The Heavens Are Telling." No. 130.

Short Story of Paul's Life: By a Junior.

Memory Hymn: "Oh Jesus I Have Promised" No. 159, or Jesus Saviour Pilot Me." No. 120.

Distribution of Diplomas:

Juniors at this time pass to receive diplomas and step back to places leaving Primary children on the front row, or the graduating Juniors may pass to the Intermediate department and Juniors not graduating remain on the platform to welcome the Primaries who now give their part of the program.

Introductory: By Primary Pupil: In the past three years we have learned many beautiful Bible stories, and they have taught us lessons of Trust and of Love, Obedience and Service to Others. We can not tell you all that we have learned, but we are going to give you one of sweetest stories in the whole Bible.

Primary children all repeat, Mark 16:1-7.

"And when the Sabboth was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him.

And very early on the first day of the week, they come to the tomb when the sun was risen.

And they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the tomb?

And looking up they see that the stone is rolled back; for it was exceeding great.

And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, arrayed in a white robe; and they were amazed.

And he saith unto them, Be not amazed; ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who hath been crucified; he is risen; he is not here: behold, the place where they laid him:

But go, and tell his disciples and Peter, He goeth before you into Galilee, there shall ye see him, as he said unto you."

Story: By Primary pupil: "A Captive Maid Trying to Help."

Song: "Jesus Loves Me This I Know." No. 82.

Primary children receive diplomas and pass to places in front of Juniors.

Juniors recite: Primaries face Juniors:

"With a welcome hand we greet you—
You who join us here today;
May we love and learn together.
Welcome, welcome now we say."

Primary children sing the following to the tune of: "Stand up, stand up for Jesus." No. 148.

"We're Juniors, yes, we're Juniors,
As now we join with you
We'll learn of Christ our Saviour,
Whose word is always true

We're daily growing older,
And learning more and more;
We'll walk in wisdom's pathway
And add unto our store."

Juniors sing in answer:

"Oh, welcome, yes, you're welcome,
There's much for all to do.
There's knowledge to be gathered
There's joy to share with you.

Our Lord will be our teacher,
We'll learn of him each day.
Oh, may we love and trust him,
For He's the Life—the Way."

All face front again, Beginners march down the aisles while both Juniors and Primaries sing an appropriate song "Open the Gates for the Dear Little Feet," or "Open the Door for the Children" or the following:

TUNE: "LITTLE ROSEBUDS" in "Gospel Bells"

Pretty little children,
Hearts so pure and true!
Eyes so bright and sparkling,

What so fair as you?
Smiling little faces,
Dimples shy and sweet—
Busy little hands,
Willing little feet.

REFRAIN

Pretty children—what more fair than you?
Pretty children—beautiful, pure and true;
What sweet thoughts you give us,
As your charms expand;
Living for the Master,
Fashioned by His hand.

Lovely little children,
May we be like you!
Living for the Master,
Faithful, pure and true;
Of your smiles and sunshine
Richly you bestow—
Every day a blessing,
As you heavenward go. L. A. F.

Beginners promotion class stands in front of Primaries.

Child speaks: We are only little boys and girls, but we know that Jesus loves us and wants us to be in the Sunday School. Once when Jesus was on earth He took little children in His arms and blessed them, and said: (Beginners join in repeating)
"Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them not: for to such belongeth the kingdom of God."

Children sing: "That Sweet Story of Old." No. 18.
"I think when I read that sweet story of old,
When Jesus was here among men,
How He called little children like lambs to His fold,
I should like to have been with Him then."

"I wish that His hands had been placed on my head,
That His arms had been thrown around me,
That I might have seen His kind look when He said,
'Let the little ones come unto me!"

Short Story: "A Baby in a Basket Boat."

MOTHERS' MEETING PROGRAM

TOPIC: "Music in the Home"

L. A. F.

Opening Song: The Teachers' Hymn: Tune: "Love Divine." No. 150.

"Up to us sweet childhood looketh,
Heart and mind and soul awake;
Teach us of Thy ways, O Father,
Teach us for sweet childhood's sake.
In their young hearts soft and tender,
Guide our hands good seeds to sow,
That its blossoming may praise Thee,
Praise Thee wheresoe'er they go.

"Give to us a cheerful spirit,
That our little flocks may see,
It is good and pleasant service
To be ever taught of Thee.
Father, order all our footsteps;
So direct our daily way,
That in following us, the children
May not ever go astray.

"Let Thy holy counsel lead us,
Let Thy light before me shine,
That they may not stumble over
Any word or deed of ours.
Draw us hand in hand to Jesus,
For His word's sake unforgot,
'Let the little ones come to Me,
And do thou forbid them not!'"

Mother's Challenge:

"Would you know the baby's skies?
Baby's skies are mother's eyes.
Mother's eyes and smile together
Make the baby's pleasant weather.

"Mother, keep your eyes from tears,
Keep your heart from foolish fears,
Keep your lips from dull complaining,
Lest the baby think 'tis raining."

Questions for Discussion:

Do you remember any of the lullabies that were sung to you when a child?
What lullabies do you sing to your children?
Have you marked favorite lullabies?
